

Quick Summary of the Seven Day City Assessment for a New Citizen

A seven day city services assessment for new citizens. The mayor recommends and I review the service for promotion to find gaps in services a city needs and bring those services to the community.

A city can review and focus on priority needs based on life safety in each category in everyday life and major events like a power outage, extreme weather and radiation sickness (radio frequency, power lines, LED's) in the area.

Conclusion (who, what, where, when, why)

A seven day city services assessment for new citizens conclusion: I was able to stay safely and the city has very effective governance, life safety services and non life safety services.

All recommendations were Highly Effective and enjoyable to use. The City is very healthy in governance, law and health to make everyday life a joy and be able to respond to Life

Safety events. Every citizen needs to plan and have contact info for all public servants and services.
